Miss Hattle Masters to the younger mem-bers of her music class. In the evening they were joined by friends, after which refreshments were served. The members

A delightful surprise party was given last evening in honor of Miss Edna Meyers of No. 1407 Newhouse avenue. Those present

Messleur—
Ben Thorpe.
 Walter Hettenbaugh
Fred Cissel,
Carl McConnell,
James McConnell,
Koy Meyers,

Best Watches-Mermod & Jaccard's,

Miss Imagene Suits of Maplewood gave as informal party last Saturday evening to a few of her friends. Among those invited

Eichenroth, Masters,

Della Von der Ahe.

Della Von der Ahe, Louisa Von der Ahe Katie Sullivan, Edna Bowman, Minnie Gleason, Florence Wagoner, Ruby Miller, Rose Kness, Hattie Masters, Masters—

Hugo Bonbam,

few of her friends were: Misses-Minnie Savare. Cora Dennis, Helen Hunt, Stelia Hunt, Martha Kunz, Messieurs-Charles Parker, John Schuermann. Clarence Tesson, Arthur Ashley,

Charles J. Blake, Robert M. Brown, H. H. Niederloh, Mesdames— McGinnts of Mar-sball, Mo.

shall, Mo.
Misses—
Katie Stetzinger,
May Staley,
Alice Metice,
Messieurs—

Messieurs— George Driffill of Cloveland, O. John Kenny, A. Jameson, George Blake, play if in t Ruest were: Misses

Ruh Wilson, Myra Anderson, Hessy Clause, Anna Ellis, Mae Deming.

Messieurs— Walter Sinclair, James Wilson, Louis Davis, Jack Murphy, Dr. Wm. Clark,

Messieurs— Will Huber, Harry Gaus, Leo Cummiskey,

Lydia Volmer.

Kate Walsh.

were: Mrs. George Heege.

Misses— Lola Wachter, Selma Hageman, Messieurs— A. C. Lynn, Carl Rotteck,

Annie Ryan. M. Mullen,

L. McKellop

Nellie Thornton,

gramme. Those prese Messieurs— Campobello, Edward Dierkes, J. McNulty, Gus Dickson, Sterling Jones, Otto Dierker, Blanche Bishoff.

Blanche Bishoff, Ella Griesdick, Ilse Lungstras, Allee Lang, Adele Nake, Lucille Nake, Allee Barns, Lillian Allyn, Edith Darnhorst, Hirsche.

Stocker, B. Ogden, C. Pfingsten,

George Blake, Lawrence Cochran, Charles Niederleh, William Niederleh,

Hastle of Chicago, George Bilsbarrow,

Barkley.

Alma Voderburg, Mary Holbert, Lulu Laike, Adele Bochert, Genevieve Brady, Leonat Bonham, Margaret Mentz, Flora Kness, Olive Masters.

Victor Eichenroth.

Edna Lauber, Margaret Malseed, Hattie Meyers, Gertrude Meyers,

Carrie Barnes of Butler, Ill., Eva Bridge, Amelia Hans,

J. J. King of Alton, James Wade, Ed Parmelee, Thomas G. Wade, Sam Bland.

Bryan King.

Dorothy Blake,

Mercy Blake, Florence King,

Harry Wade, James Monterief, Colonel George Be George Bell, Jr.; Clifford Bell, Edgar V. Calmer.

Elsie Hyatt, Maybelle Peters, Mayme Smith, Alice Boyce, Estelle Déming.

Fred Spencer,

Ed Guide, Charles Dorf, Dr. Ben Bona, Robert McKrey.

Fred Gaus, Will Harsman.

Adele Harsman, Minnie Miller.

Harry McCarty, Jereome Gabert,

Alice Whealen, Mary King, Nannie Stanton,

Joseph R. Brown, J. B. Krieger, Waiter Jones, J. Fitzgerald, D. J. MacDonald, Joseph Tracy.

Hazel Wainwright,

wright, Hazel Klobasa,

Kittle Angell, Julia Fernoff.

Thelas, Birkner, F. Pfingsten.

Birkner, N. Ogden, E. Pfingsten.

Marguerette Detmer, Edna Stocke,

MISS BISHOFF ENTERTAINS.

Miss Bianche Bishoff gave a reception last Wednesday afternoon to several friends. Games, for which prizes were awarded, were indulged in, followed by a delicious luncheon. The house was decorated with roses and ferns.

Those present were:

Misses—
Misses—

An enjoyable event of the week was the reception given by Miss Clara Pfingsten of College avenue. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Porter.

The cars Ariel and Rover of the Transit Company carried a jolly party of the members of the St. Louis Society of Accountants and Bookkeepers and their friends for a ride over a selected route last Friday evening. Refreshments were served en route. Those in attendance were:

Messeleurs and Mesdames—
E. F. Holtgrewe, R. W. Boisillier, Herman Koopman, H. H. Lamping, George M. Dinges, Charles Schnyder, Frank Maione, Louis Wild, C. A. Sweetland, Leo Widney, J. D. Horst, Joseph Broerman, F. C. Hanser, J. B. Bersch, A. J. Fischer, A. H. Browne, D. I. Zucker, Mr. Charles H. Wurslin and ladies, Mr. F. C. Carlisle and son, Mr. J. W. Hyatt and ladies, Mr. J. H. Ahrens and ladies, Mrs. Isabella Scott Zucker, Mr. F. J. Hill.

On Tuesday evening Miss Charlotte Kath-

On Tuesday evening Miss Charlotte Kath-

On Tuesday evening Miss Charlotte Kathmann of Laclede avenue gave a whist complimentary to her friend, Miss Leona Le Van of Quincy, Ill. After the game and refreshments several selections of instrumental and vocal music were rendered by Mr. Ed Musick. Among those present were Misser Alma and Clara Hutmacher of Quincy, Ill., Pearl Heliache of Quincy, Ill., Winfried Bucher of Denver, Colo. Bessie Musich, Ella Long, Linda Payne, Margaret Cato, Rush Murry; Messrs. Harry Cato, A.

M. McCarthy.

Mrs. Spencer of Page avenue entertained in honor of Misses Estelle and Mae Deming of the North End, Miss Boyce of New York and Mr. Robert J. McKrey of Kentucky. Covers were laid for thirty. After supper tarpaulins were spread on the spacious lawn for dancing, while a colored orchestra play if in the background. Among the guests were:

A party of young people drove out to the country in a furniture car at an early hour last Sunday to spend the day as the guests of Mrs. Trampe. Various amusements were enjoyed, including dancing, music and games, followed in the evening by a delightful dinner. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Applehaus.

Messleurs—

A party of young people chaperoned by Mrs. George Heege of Castleman avenue has just returned from a delightful trip to Eureka Springs. Horseback riding was the main feature of their stay, Among the party were:

Pell,

MRS. VAN KLIGK AND HER MOTHER MRS. ALEXANDER THOM

ion. He has been dead many years. The Harrisses were the second and present own-Sweet-scented cedar trees everywheredown the broad roads, leading to the old house, which is about eighty years old, they tell me; way down the pastures and out to Fern Hollow; lining the roads to Pelvey and Sulphur Springs, everywhere these trees abound and enliven the air with their pungency. If by any chance you should ise early enough to see the sun come up | Klick. They now live in New York and over "Sunset Hill" or take a stroll down | paid a short visit to The Cedars en route the roads at 5 in the morning, while there to Salt Lake. is still dew on the grass, the cedars are to seen and smelt in their fullest glory. Country pleasures of the real artistic sort are always to be had at The Cedars. Saturday night is a lovely time. Miss Ruby Baird, a weekly arrival, brings her fine contralto voice along, and sings for an hour or more, while gay and frolicsome Ray Byrne plays her accompaniments in most sympa-thetic fashlon. This always delights the elders. Then there is music of the ragtime variety from several young girls, who ien floor to a high degree of polish. 2 13 mold's mill, where a superb view of twentylive miles in every direction, frequent picnic arties, a little mild fishing in the stream. which teems with small fish which do not care much about being lured from their ces of repose. These furnish plenty of

by a little dancing in the wide hall, which is a living-room on damp days and even-ings. The gilde of many feet has worn its nany darkles, and the little cabins where they lived still stand. They now make very comfortable quarters when the house is full to overflowing, and not a few merry house parties have been sheltered within their ancient walls. This Major O'Fallon was a first cousin of our Benjamin O'Falhealthy diversion. Delicious chicken dinners and all products of a dairy that boasts of only Jersey stock, provide much comfort for the inner man and woman. Is it any wonder that The Cedars is always crowded to overflowing, both in and out of season? The fall hous parties are just beginning, and to-day finds large and very jolly party down there for the week end. Some of those who never pass a summe season without one or more visits to this unique resort are: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Aderton, Mrs. Wilkinson and her daughters, who have just come back, after seven weeks' stax; Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn, who came with the Edward Pelton party; Mr. B. R. Bonner, who is a regular summer visitor and the delight of all the young people on the place; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson, who, with their infant, are there for all the early fall; Mrs. Kate Chopin, who chapcroned a party consisting of the Misses Gleason, Du Mont Jones, James Abeles and George Brokaw; Charles Thompson, Earle Robinson and Charles Hoyle, Jr., who rides all the country round; Mrs. Lemon and Miss Engenia Lemon, Mrs. H. B. Lewis, Mrs. Charles E. Sharp, who will remain with her family until October; Mr. and Mrs. William Barnhart, who are setticd this summer in Mr. Harris's cottage, a half mile this side of The Cedars.

so Miss Jennie Harris, in a charming Illacflowered gown, with a picture bonnet of lilac and green straw, is the presiding genius of "The Cedars" and positively ubiquitous in her care of her guests. She has just had with her two ladies in whom St. Louis society has an interest, since they once lived in town for several years, Mrs. Alexander Thompson, who was the attractive Dora Stebbins, and her daughter, Mrs. Van

Colonel and Mrs. James Gay Butler have been entertaining royally on board the Duwere leaven the foot of East TwentyClub's station at the foot of East TwentyLine Thursday morning.

Line Thursday morning.

Line Thursday morning.

Lo Brien,

Zoe Mack,

C. O'Brien,

Messieurs
Messieurs
Messieurs
Messieurs
Messieurs
Messieurs
Messieurs
Messieurs
Messieurs
Messieurs-

banner, and occasioned much comment. As the Duquesne acted as one of the fleet of patrol boats during the races, the Exposition flag was in evidence all the week. The Augustus Harts of Westmoreland place were among the St. Louis guests of

Colonel and Mrs. Butler, also Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Barrett. SERENA LAMB. WEDDINGS.

and Water Pitchers-Mermod & Jac

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Lederer announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeannette, to Doctor Joseph H. Stolper, At home after-noon and evening, Sunday, October 4.

The most beautiful trains are those of the Big Four to New York and Boston.

EDMONDS—WILLIAMS.

Mr. Fred Edmonds of Little Rock, Ark., formerly of St. Louis, was married last week at Paducah, Ky., the home of the bride's father, to Miss Agnes Williams of Mound City. Ill. Mr. Arthur Barrett of St. Louis and Miss Abbie Williams, the bride's sister, were the only attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds left on the noon train for St. Louis to visit Mrs. Edmonds, the groom's mother.

mother.

WENDLEKEN-ROESSEL

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar H. Roessel, formerly of Compton Heights, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Stella Boardman Roessel, to Mr. Joseph T. Windleken of Marletta, O. The wedding took place in old St. Marry's Seminary, at Perryville, Mo., on Wednesday evening, August 26, at 5 o'clock. The attendants were: Miss Hallle Furst of Perryville, bridesmaid; Mr. Hugo Houck of Believille, Ill., best man. The flower girls were Misses Frances K. Jay of New Orleans, La., and Fuzzy Delano Kingsberry of St. Louis, Mo., Master Oswald M. Roessel was usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendleken departed on an early train for Chicago. After a short tour of the Northern Lakes they will visit the relatives of the bridegroom in Ohio.

Calling Curds, Mermed & Jaccard's

Calling Cards-Mermod & Jaccard's. CHISTOPHER-DEISNER. The marriage of Miss Ida Deisner and Mr. Albert F. Christopher took place Wednes-

signs, reduced from 30c to 19c.

signs, reduced from 55c to 29c.

60c to 29c.

15c to 5c.

from 40c to 19c.

200 giove boxes, complete with de-

350 handkerchief boxes reduced from

500 card and nick-nack boxes reduced

675 circular collar boxes reduced from

A big assortment of designed basswood panels reduced from 75c to 33c.

day, August 19, at the North Presbyterian Church. After the ceremony the bridal party were driven to the home of the bridal where a reception was held, to which the members of both families and a few intimate friends had been invited. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Deisner, Mrs. J. Christopher, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Christopher, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Christopher, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Christopher, Mrs. George Polliham, K. Winters, Miss Herboth, May Deisner, Christine Kalert, Walter Shannon and Herman Shin.

SOCIAL CLUBS.

man Shin.

Rich Cut Glass-Mermod & Jaccard's.

The "Weather-Birds," chaperoned by Miss Margaret Kavanaugh, gave a basket picnic at Ramona Park last Sunday. Boating, dancing and music, furnished by the C. V. Q. were features of the day. Those present

A. Zilch, W. Sittig.

A. Nolan, V. Wiehe.

The Arlington Social Club enjoyed a hay ride to Normandy Grove last Saturday evening. The principal feature of the evening was dancing, after which refreshments were served.

Those present were:

Messicurs—

James Mason, C. Wilson,
Bert Mason, J. Casey,
J. Wittmond, L. Davis,
H. Donnelly, oy Wright,
Paul Weil, ave Manton,
A. Hermann, arol Clark,

C. Wilson, J. Casey, R. Davis, oy Wright, ave Manton, arol Clark, J. E. Conley. A. Hermann, J. E. Bertwell, Misses— Mae Fox, Mamie Dunn, Freda Joerg, Marie Perl, Jenet Smith, Nellie Fox, Lelia Perl, Rose Schreiber, Emma Walker, Mae Davis, Carrie Dalton, Marie Casey, Della Moore, Lella Dunn.

Mr. Thomas B. McArdle of the South Side gave a banquet to his friends Monday evening. His rendezvous was decorated with Japanese lanterns and the I. C. T. colors, orange and white. He received a bouquet of American Beauties from the club. Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered by all those present. The jolly crowd consisted of:

Messleurs—Frank Baehr,
Alols Bourscheldt,
Hugh Bowers,
Louis Claes,
Anthony Costello,
Urban Dames,
John Doyle, Harry Johns, Thomas Malone, Thomas McArdle, Albert Meyer, Arthur Reuff, John Schaeffer, Jules Wendel.

Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Locust A crowd of young folks enjoyed a trip on the "Kinloch" to Delmar Garden and Creve Coeur, where dancing was enjoyed. A mid-night a dainty supper was served. Mmes, Niederhaus and Nugent chaperoned. Those present were: C. Clark, Agnes Imogen, Maud Donnes, I. Meltz.

John Bradford,

Laura Rymer, Jennie Garry, Pauline Ryan, Josie Finigan, L. Harris,

E. Smith, Tom Wade, F. Nugent Ed Gray, Fred Neiderhaus, MISCELLANEOUS EVENTS.

Wedding Invitations-Mermod & Jaccard's. Among those who enjoyed Miss Ida Elli-cock's picnic at O'Fallon Park yesterday

Alice De Yong, Alice De Yong, Nannie Hite, Theresa Stritter, Heien Kennel, Floy McGill, Clara Stritter, Anna Brew,

Messieurs— Lee Hite, Albert Ellicock, Oscar Swartz, Frank Rushton, Albert Brown, Herbert Kennel, Arthur Ellicock, were;

Misses—
Callie V. Furlong,
Eleanor McQuade,
May M. Martin,
Bernadette Carrigan Jean Hardy, Myrtle Ballard.

Four trains a day, St. Louis to Cincinnati, via Big Four. Parlor, sleeping, dining cars.

Bertha Bachmann, Alma Bachmann, Elsa Gottschalk, Winter. William Stoltz.

Messicurs
F. W. Willmann,
J. Kissle,
W. Kissle,
T. Kuhnle,
A. Remicke,
J. Bachmann,
E. Schoenberg, Trager, C. Schuster, H. Winter, George Bassler, W. Stoltz, C. Bachmann, Gertle Zeltz, Frances Stelter of Peoria, Lena Maw, Lulu Menke.

One of the events of the week was a picnic at Forest Park given on Tuesday by

BARGAINS

Pyrography er Wood Burning Supplies. Also Cameras and Photo Supplies.

offer our entire stock at from 25 to 75 per cent reduction, to make room for heavy shipments of fall goods. leaders in these two lines of goods and offer you strictly NEW GOODS at prices way below cost of making.

Some of the Bargains in Pyrography. Outfits for burning reduced from $3.00 | 500 8-inch plaques, assorted, new de-

Better grade outfits for burning re duced from $5.50 to $3.98. so tabourettes with detachable legs re duced from $1.65 to 63c. 500 cabinet frames, assorted patterns and designs, reduced from 30c to 17%C. 45 photo racks reduced from 400 to 68 book racks reduced from 50c to 29c.

reduced to $1.05. Poco cameras, regular price $12.00, reduced to $5.00 Premo film camera reduced from $4.50

Our M. B. special, the biggest bargain ever offered, reduced from $8.00 to Magazine camera, holding 12 plates, reduced from $8.00 to $2.25. Also fifty other styles and models of cumeras reduced in price from 25 to 33 1-3 per cent.

Some of the Bargains in Photography. Premo Cameras, regular price $15.00. Printing frames reduced from 25c to 9c. Tube paste reduced from 5c to 3c. Trays reduced from 50c to 19c. Hydrometers reduced from 50c to 19c. Scales reduced from 75c to 29c. 50c to 19c.

> Trimmers reduced from 60c to 39c. Developing powders reduced from 5c to 3c. Toning solution reduced from 40c to

A LARGE LINE OF OTHER VALUES EQUALLY AS ASTONISHING.

A. HYATT, 412 N. Broadway MAIL ORDERS WILL RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION.

Maymie Boyle, Dalsy Gentzlinger, Mamie Leonard. Estelle Swartz, Ida Ellicock, Dorothy Becker, Sarita Ellicock.

Ben Gerskemper. Charlie Hite, Chesley De Yong, Walter Ellicock, Bert Fiske, Archie Koehler.

A select party of young folks, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Cloud, Jr., gave a plenic at Meramec Highlands last Satur-day afternoon. After a delightful repast on the ground they spent the remainder of the evening dancing. Those who participated

Al M. Wright.
Al M. Wright.
Louis T. Hatfield,
Ernest B. Millis,
Lester Grüner,
Fred Hirsch,
Festus Shaugh-Leroy,
Jim Sweeney,
Walter Nasse,
Fred Schramm,
Lewis Gruner,
Eddle FitzGlibbons,
Joe Mahoney,
Joe Steinlage.

nessy, Bennet Evans,

Morning, Noon and Night, Big Four trains cave St. Louis for Cincinnati. A merry St. Louis party enjoyed a hay-ride two miles south of Trenton, Ill., given in honor of Mr. F. W. Willmann, at the home of Mr. George Bassler. Music was furnished by the "Jolly Four Musical Club," Those present were: Misses-Mrs. H. Nicols of Kirkwood, assisted by her mother. Mrs. Tillie Whealen, enter-tained a party from the city on last Thurs-day. Among those present were; Mesdames— Mesdames—
John Whealen, Jr.,
M. J. Whyte,
John McMahon,
M. J. Whealen,
M. Whea

Metza Gottschalk, Lizzie Stoltz.

Mrs. Ben Menke of No. 1426 South Twelfth street entertained the following friends Tuesday evening:

Gertie Zeitz,
of Peoria,
Minnie Schroerm
of Peoria,
Josle Wendel,
Messieurs—
Edward Reemts,
J. C. Davis,
John Wurtz,

Den Menke, Walter Menke Mrs. Haenscher

MISS NORINE BIESER.

Bardenheier, Preston Montgomery, Bichs Fred Suits, George Stuckey, Jr., G. Hunt.

Mrs. C. W. Foster of No. 232 Existon ave-nue gave a lawn party in honor of her son James Campbell Poster, the occasion beins his seventeenth birthday. Those present were: Messieurs-

Best Watches-Mermod & Jaccard's.

The fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Syrett was celebrated on Tuesday evening at their pretty home in Greenwood. A delightful evening was spent by fifty guests on the lawn. Fine muste and vocal selections were rendered by the Climax colored quartet. Thirty presents were presented to the lucky couple, consisting of clothespins, wooden shoes, buckets, tables, chairs, placques etc. Mrs. Syrett entertained in her usual charming manner, assisted by Mrs. Thomas G. Wade and her sister-in-haw, Mrs. J. J. King of Alton, Ill.

The lawn was decorated with electric Japanese lanterns. The shrubbery, trees and flowers presented a pleasing effect under the subdued light. A partial list of the guests present follows:
Mesdames and Messieurs—Charles J. Blake.

J. J. King of Alton, Babert W. Eronn. Clara Walton, Annie Foster, May Schurr, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Rowlin and Master Winston Rowlin of Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. F. N. Meckfessel of No. 468 Ashland tyenue gave a birthday reception last avenue gave a birthday re Thursday evening Among those present were:

destarmes—
Charles Hausmann, F. Stoner,
Caroline Westcott, Ed Lochmoeller,
William Lochmoeller, J. Danfels,
Charles Mecktessel, H. Susen,
William Hausmann, A. Meckfessel,
P. Nelker,

The St. Ann Athletic Club gave a recep-tion and dance on the lawn of Mr. William Lawier, No. 428 Page boulevard, on Wednesday evening. Those present were: P. J. Holmes, T. Porter,

Messieura—
J. Hyde,
J. Hyde,
P. Hyde,
I. Casey,
William Casey,
P. Ring,
D. Ryan,
J. Cullinane,
A. Hesse,
J. M. Blong,
J. P. Higgins,
J. J. Reuter,
William Lawler,
F. L. A. Whiting,
Misses—
Lawler, 1. Forter,
C. Hippe,
M. Goff,
F. Foan,
A. A. Tegtmeler,
William Woiff,
J. Lawler,
P. Gordon,
P. J. Doran,
M. Kehoe,
T. Turnley T. Torpley, J. Dunlap. Lawler, Holmes, M. Hughes, N. Hughes, Wickham, Geiger. Stretch, Boehn, O'Neill, Hyde, Sheehan, Zebaren, Reuter,

Carr. 22
Fowers, R
L. Jeffers, F
Mendeurs and Mesdames
M. Lauwer, A
H. T. Shottmueller, Readev. A. Jaeger.

At a "swimming" party, given last Friday evening, were present the following well-known young people:

Misses—

O. Feldman,
Alice Freudenstein,
Olivia Dewes,
Edna Feldman,
Anna Ingenham,
Messleurs—

Alma Stippe,
Marie Freudenstein,
Edna Feldman,
Anna Ingenham,
Messleurs—

Resident Stippe,
Marie Freudenstein,
Dewes,
Edna Feldman,
Anna Ingenham,
Messleurs— Messieurs— Matt Kredell, Huge Soest, Andrew Murray, Wm. Kempel, Ben Essmueller, Andrew Kaletia, Carl Skart Hugh Murray. Hugh Murray, Irwin Ossing, Chas. Evers, Archie Barthek, Lou Schmidt, A. Orthwein, Fred Gerber.

Richard Stempf, PERSONAL MENTION.

Silk Umbrellas-Mermod & Jaccard's. Mrs. William G. Boyd is the guest of Mrs. W. S. McChesney at her cettage at Gratlot Beach, Mich.

Mrs. F. P. Mahon of North St. Louis, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Tilda, has just returned from a trip to Louisville. Ky. They also visited friends in Jefferson-ville and New Albany, Ind.

Miss Marie Shea. No. 2423 Bacon street, departed last Monday for an extended trip North. She will visit all points of interest and remain for some time at Waukesha, re-turning by way of Chicago.

Mr. Charles Blish of Crowley, La., is vis-iting his sister, Mrs. Joseph Robards of Maple avenue.

A party of ladies from St. Louis was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. H. A. Bellis of Webster Groves on Thursday of this week. Luncheon was served and enjoyed by all the ladies present, after which the guests were entertained with music selections. The following were present: Mrs. A. G. Bellis, Mrs. E. A. Whitehill of Jennings Station, Mrs. James Hurley, Mrs. J. A. Kentnor, Mrs. Thomas A. Wightman, Mrs. R. H. Meyers, Mrs. H. F. Smail, Mrs. M. E. Scott, Mrs. K. McGraw, Mrs. C. Stahler, Miss Lille Stahler, Miss Irene Meyers, Miss Meta Smail and Master Eugene Meyers. Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Locust On Thursday evening Mr. John B. Krieger gave a musicale in honor of Signor Enrique Campobello, barytone. Every one present contributed his share to the programme. Those present were:

Doctor John A. James has returned from Canada, where he spent his vacation. Mrs. F. E. Lane and Mrs. C. Dixon of No. 3345 North Eleventh street, have just returned from Plasa Chautauqua, where they spent a few weeks.

The Misses Alice Layat, Eugenia Dubois and Lillie Matt have returned from a delightful trip to Wisconsin and Chicago. A jolly party of the B. C. returned from a delightful trip to Memphis, Tenn., on the steamer Lotus Sims. In the party were: Messrs, and Mmes. Oscar Niemann. Louis Leo., Thomas A. Quirk and H. Reichen-

Through sleeping-cars, St. Louis to Bos-ton, every day in the year, via Big Four. Mr. Arthur A. Trostler of No. 5249 Vernon avenue has returned from a month's trip to the resorts of Northern Michigan. Mrs. Annie McCord and children of the North Side, who have been visiting in Montgomery City, have returned home. Mrs. R. E. McGliaway and son, Blaine, have returned from the South, where they have been spending the summer with rela-tives and friends. They will now go to Old Mexico, to be gone a year.

Miss Elizabeth Ashton Blakely, who has been spending a month in St. Louis, visit-ing her cousin, Miss Imagene Blakely, re-turned Wednesday to her home in Coving-ton, Ky.

Of North St. Louis, who has just returned from a summer European trip.

The Misses Elizabeth and Mary Brazili have just returned from a sojourn in Chi-cago and the Northern lake resorts. Doctor and Mrs. Scott Parsons have re-turned to the city after a two months' so-journ at Eastern resorts.

Wedding Silver-Mermed & Jaccard's. Doctor Edward P. Brady. No. 3128 Morgan street, has returned from Asbury Park.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Sharkey and Miss Elizabeth Sharkey have returned home after a delightful trip to Chicago and South Haven, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Le Pulvre returned home, after several weeks' stay in Chicago and the Northern resorts. Doctor W. A. Lewin and family of No. 443 Morgan street have just returned after spending the summer at the Northern lakes. Miss Mollie Waldron, who has been in Puris, and Mr. L. Ackerman and Miss Mary Waldron, who have been in New York in the interest of Sonnenfeld's, have returned to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex, B. Everly of Fergu-son have returned from a trip to White Springs, Mo., where they spent two weeks.

KIRKWOOD. From Los Angeles, Cal., comes the announcement of the marriage of Charles P. Halsey, a Jorner resident of Kirkwood, to Miss Anna S. Juneman. The ceremony was performed in St. Paul's Church. Los Angeles, August 17 Mr. and Mrs. Halsey will be at home after September 1 at La Jolia, San Bieso County, Cal.

Miss Lois Kinkead departed last Thursday to visit friends in Idaho.

Mrs. C. V. Menercau and her little daughter. Elinore, spent part of last week with ter, Ellinore, spent part of last week with Mrs. J. G. Selden. Mrs. George H. Taussig and her daughter, Miss Marianna, are visiting relatives in

Mrs. George H. Taussig and ner daugnter, Miss Marianna, are visiting relatives in Cincinnall.

Mrs. John L. Gray has been entertaining Mrs. Horace Baker of Charlotte, N. C., and Miss Julie Cornoyer of Burlington, Ia.

Mrs. D. H. Black returned last week from a visit to friends in the central part of the State.

Mrs. Steve J. Harris is entertaining Mrs. L. Kneeland Booker and her daughter, Miss lida May of Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Laura Crawshaw is spending a fortnight in St. Louis.

The Reverend H. B. Smith, curate of Grace Church departed last week to visit his parents in Mount Forest, Canada, before going to his new charge, the pastorate of the Episcopal Church of Coudersport, Mrs. H. G. Wyer and her into charghter, who have been in Boston, her curated from Canada, where they have been in Eoston, her curated from Canada, where they have here in the charge of the form Canada, where they have here in the charge of the contract of the Spiscopal Church of Coudersport, Mrs. and Mrs. J. N. Hugher the charge of the contract of the Canada, where they have here in the charge of the contract of the contract of the Canada, where they have here here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hughesterned ceturned from Canada, where they mer.
Mrs. James G. Selden et pel Mrs.
Fred Dorsey and Miss Mabel porsey last week.
Mrs. Emilie S. Krueger and her little daughter, Marie, are visiting in Desige, Mo. Miss Carey Robinson gave a watermelon Airss takes, party last week, Miss Harry B. Purcell returned Thursday from Colorado, where she spent two weeks

Miss Carey Robinson gave a watermelon party last week.

Allas Harry B. Purcell returned Thursday from Colorasio, where she spent two weeks with relatives.

George L. Edwards is in Charlevoix, where he went to join his wife. They will return home September I.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Way have returned from Hot Springs.

Joseph Franklin gave a trolley party last week to a few friends. After riding through the suburbs they went to the baseball game at the League Park and to Koerner's Garden, where supper was served. Among the guests were the Misses Ethel, Laura and Alice Franklin and James L. Blair, Ashley Cabell, C. P. Farrington, Eros Clark and T. B. Boyd.

Mrs. Olaf Mogansen and her little son, Alan, will return Sunday from Manitou, where they have spent a month.

Ingram Boyd is in Charlevoix, the guest of Mrs. D. S. Brown and family at the cottage. They are expected to return shome the middle of the week.

Mrs. R. D. Jones entertained several children Thursday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Lellan.

Mrs. Harry Crutsinger and children, who have been visiting relatives near here, have returned to their home in Atchison, Kas.

Mrs. M. M. Wyman of Joplin is visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis Stockstrom, at her summer home, The Eyric, on the Meramec River. She is accompanied by her little nice, Helen Piekson.

Miss Teckla Suepkin will entertain Our Own Club on Wednesday afternoon, from it to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Louraine F. Jones and her daughter, Mss Fontaine, who have been for some time at Wequetonsing, are expected home this week.

Mrs. E. S. Carter and her daughters, the Mrs. E. S. Carter and her daughters, the

this week.

Mrs. E. S. Carter and her daughters, the Misses Louise and Mabet, have returned from Ohlo.

J. C. Walden and family, who occupied the home of Doctor H. G. Wyer during the summer, have returned to St. Louis.

Mrs. Anderson Graiz and her daughter, Miss Katherine, are expected to return from Wequetonsing in a few days.

Miss Jessie Hough is expected home from Waupaca, Wis. September 1.

Professor John S. Collins, who has been conducting the summer normal school at Cape Girardeau, Mo., will return home to-merrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Scholz departed Friday for Sylvan Beach. Mr. George Einthardt has accepted the position of organist at the Emmanuel Thurch.

The Reverend William Johnson, former nastor of the Olive Branch Church, St. Louis, but now of Mendville, Mo., preached in the Congregational Church List Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Smith will return this week from Mount Vernon, O., Columbus and Etica. Miss Katherine Blackmer, who is to marry Mr. Henry Miller this week, was born on Friday, and is using that day of Fashionable Stationery.

WE are prepared to execute orders promptly, and absolute correctness in style and workmanship is assured when you order from us, for our engraver's work is unsurpassed. GUEST CARDS. INVITATIONS, ANNOUNCEMENTS, CALLING CARDS,

MONOGRAM PAPER, MENUS, ETC. We shall be pleased to quote prices and mail samples to any part of the United States. Calling Cards-100 and engraved plate (script)....$1.50

MERMOD & JACCARD'S,

Broadway and Locust. Hustrated Catalogue mailed free. Mail orders promptly filled.